IM BACK B*TCHES

Im back sloots and this time better than ever. I am so very behind on celebrity goss and I am sure many of you (especially the ones that live under a rock) are extremely out of the loop considering this is your only form of pop culture news. So, lets not delay this any further and dive right in. Here we go!

IS ZIGLA THING AGAIN? PLS NO....

E! has confirmed that Gigi and Zayn have in fact gotten back together and that they rekindled their relationship right before the holidays in December. This is a VERY weird flex considering he treated her like trash and she could date anyone else on this entire planet??? Don't get me wrong he is one of the hottest men I have ever laid eyes on and yes he was my favorite 1D member, but that does not excuse his shitty behavior! Hadid and Malik were first photographed out on the night before his birthday. They were photographed alongside Bella and no other than DULA PEEP (aka dua lipa). A close source has said that Gigi "has always had a soft spot for Zayn and they have a lot of history together." kk,,,, thank you next.

WHAT IS MEGXIT?

On January 8, Meghan Markle and Prince Harry (well just Harry now) announced they would step down as senior members of the British royal family. So what does this mean?? For starters Meg and Harry will be moving to North America and balance their time between the US and UK. They will also become financially independent and no longer receive $$$ from the #kween. Monarchies are v weird and its unclear if The Queen was even on board but considering Harry is no where near becoming King and Meghan and him were constantly being harassed in the UK tabloids this sounds like a GREAT choice.

IS GRIMES PREGNANT WITH A TESLA CYBER TRUCK?

For those of you who are confused on who Grimes is, she is a Canadian musician who is known for her out there vibes. She is confusingly dating Elon Musk and last week she posted a weird and naked instagram post that was edited to depict a fetus in her stomach. It is unclear whether or not she is actually pregnant however, in a comment on the original photo, Grimes seemed to imply that she is pregnant: "Being knocked up is a very feral & warlike state of being. Might as well be what it is," she wrote. Fingers crossed it isn't real because we all know that baby will 100p be a robot with cameras in its eyes.

WINTER LOVE ISLAND

If you are are a love island STAN then you must know that there is a WINTER love island. ## OSCAR NOMS

Oscar nominations came out earlier this week and surprise Greta Gerwig ISN'T nominated for best director (a classic Oscar move and second year in a row where no women are nominated in this category BOO). The Joker earned 11 noms, the most of any film, and 3 films were close behind with 10 noms: "Once Upon a Time in Hollywood", war movie "1917" and the Martin Scorsese film "The Irishman".

POSTHUMOUS FORGIVENESS
TAME IMPALA

TOP 2 SONG PICKS

Here are the two songs I listened to the most this week! I am so pumped for Mac Millers new album (RIP). He was almost finished with it before he died and it was supposed to be a companion to Swimming. According to NPR "Good News" is a peek through the tangled wires and shadowy crevices of a soul in the process of healing: (. Tame Impala is also on the brink of releasing their new album The Slow Rush set to release very soon. Posthumous forgiveness is the first single off the album.
